By signing your card, using your account, or allowing someone else to use your account, you accept the terms of this agreement. You agree to sign your card immediately upon receipt. If you fail to do so and your card is lost or stolen, you may be liable for any fraudulent activity if it is determined based upon substantial evidence that you were grossly negligent in the handling of the account or card.

3. We issue credit card(s) at your request for your use, but they are our property. We may renew your card(s) from time to time. The schedule we use follows:

The minimum payment required is the New Balance shown on your statement if the amount is equal to or less than $25.00. If the New Balance exceeds $25.00 the minimum payment is the greater of (1) $25.00 or (2) 1% of the New Balance (rounded up to the nearest dollar) plus any unpaid FINANCE CHARGES and/or late fees. The Total Minimum Payment will include the Minimum Payment calculated above, plus any amount in excess of your credit limit or amounts past due. Checks should be made payable to VISA. Third party endorsements are will not be accepted.

From time to time if your account qualifies, we may allow you to skip your minimum periodic payment during a billing cycle. If you skip a payment finance and insurance charges, if any, will continue to be due the month following the skipped payment.

a. PURCHASES & BALANCE TRANSFERS: A Finance Charge will be imposed on Credit Purchases and Balance Transfers only if you elect not to pay the entire New Balance shown on your monthly statement for the previous billing cycle within 25 days from the closing date of that statement. If you elect not to pay the full balance shown on your monthly statement within that 25 day period, a Finance Charge will be imposed on the unpaid average daily balance of said purchases and balance transfers from the previous statement closing date and on new purchases from the transaction date on your account during the current billing cycle, and will continue to accrue until the closing date of the billing cycle preceding the date on which the entire New Balance is paid in full or until the date of payment if more than 25 days from the closing date.

b. CASH ADVANCES A Finance Charge will be imposed on Cash Advances from the date made or from the first day of the billing cycle in which the Cash Advance is posted to your account, whichever is later, and will continue to accrue on the unpaid average daily balance of said advance until the date of payment if paid during the same billing cycle, or until the closing date of the billing cycle preceding the date on which the entire New Balance is paid in full or until the date of payment if more than 25 days from the closing date.

You will not be liable for any unauthorized use unless we determine, based on substantial evidence, that you were grossly negligent in the handling of the account or card.

If the total charges do exceed the credit line you agree, when we request, to make a payment to reduce the total on your account to an amount below your credit line. Your credit line will appear on each monthly statement.

14. If you revoke the authority of someone to use your account, revocation is not effective until that person's card expires or you return it to us, whichever is first; provided, however, each joint user agrees to pay all amounts due us for charges made by any joint user until all cards are returned to us and the balances are paid in full.

15. You agree that "unauthorized use" means the use of a credit card which has occurred or may occur as the result of loss, theft, or other wrongdoing, and which is by a person other than you or your agent, who does not have actual, implied, or apparent authority for such use, and from which you receive no benefit.

All Credit Purchases and Loans are affected at the option of the Seller and Cash Advancing Bank respectively, and Issuer shall not be responsible for refusal by any Seller and Cash Advancing Bank to honor the Card or any Related Card. Any refund, adjustment or credit allowed by Seller shall not be by cash but rather by a credit advice to Issuer which shall be shown as a credit on Cardholder's account statement with Issuer.

17. You agree to advise us promptly if you change your mailing address. We can accept address corrections from the US Postal Service. All written notices and statements from us to you will be sent to your address as it appears on our records.

18. We will consider your account past due if you fail to pay at least your minimum payment in funds acceptable to us by the date it is due. Your account will remain past due until any previous unpaid payment is paid.

19. We can consider you in default if you provide us with false information or signature, if you try to exceed or do exceed your credit line without our permission, if you fail to provide updated information which we request from time to time, if you move (either temporarily or permanently) outside the United States, if you become subject to bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings, if attachment or garnishment proceedings are instituted against you or your property, if there is an event which we believe causes the prospect of payment to be significantly impaired, if you fail to comply with any provision of this agreement or in the event of death. Default on any account with us will constitute default on all accounts with us. Upon default, at our option and under applicable law, we can declare all amounts on your account immediately due and payable. Also, we can exercise all rights available to us under law to collect what you owe us. All remedies are cumulative and our failure to exercise anyone shall not affect our rights to any other remedy.

20. If you make a payment with a check, money order, or other type of instrument marked "Payment in Full" or other language indicating satisfaction of indebtedness we are not bound by such language and do not waive any rights under this agreement. 21. Payments must be made to Issuer in US dollars drawn on a US bank. If cardholder incurs charges in any other currency, the charges will be converted into US dollars. VISA – The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is a rate selected by VISA from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate VISA itself receives, or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing time period.

22. We can change the terms of this agreement including changing the periodic rate and the annual percentage rate on the existing balance of your account to the maximum rate allowed by law, even if that maximum rate increases after the date of this agreement. We will, of course, comply with applicable law about notice to you if we make any changes. We can waive, or choose not to enforce, any of our rights under this agreement at any time, without the waiver affecting any of our other rights. A waiver on one occasion will not act as a waiver of the same right at a future date.

23. We may sell, assign, or transfer your account or any portion thereof, without notice to you. You may not sell, assign, or transfer your account without first obtaining our prior written consent.

24. From time to time we may monitor telephone calls between you and us to assure the quality of our customer service.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS - KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE.

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act. Notify us in Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill.

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet of paper at the address listed on your bill. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about. If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment your letter must reach us three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct. After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit line. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we did not make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will not have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill, and we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we do not follow these rules, we cannot collect the first $50.00 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right: You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and the purchase price must have been more than $50.00. These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called "average daily balance". See your account agreement for further information regarding how we calculate your balance.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your account agreement.

How We Will Calculate Your Variable APRs: We calculate variable APRs by adding a margin to the highest U.S. Prime Rate published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal two business days (not weekends or federal holidays) before the closing date shown on your billing statement. The APR may increase or decrease each month if the Prime Rate changes. Any new rate will be applied as of the first day of your billing cycle during which the Prime Rate has changed. If the APR increases, you will pay a higher interest charge and may pay a higher minimum payment. The Prime Rate is simply a reference index and is not the lowest interest rate available. If The Wall Street Journal stops publishing the Prime Rate, we will select a similar reference rate.

Prime Rate: Variable APRs are based on the 8.5% Prime Rate as of July 27, 2023

Balance Transfer APR: Your Balance Transfer rate is 5.9%. The monthly periodic rate of FINANCE CHARGES is 1/12th of the APR or 0.49167%.

Cash APR: Your Cash rate is 22.9%. The monthly periodic rate of FINANCE CHARGES is 1/12th of the APR or 1.90833%.

Military Lending APR: Effective October 1, 2017, Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: The costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account).
